

A-Level Politics Part 2

Summary

This course is the follow-up to Part 1, and will continue to explore the systems, ideologies and institutions that shape our world, focusing on real world events and current affairs. You'll study UK and US political systems and ideologies, government structures, elections, power and participation. On this course, you will gain a deep understanding of how democracy works (or doesn't) and what influences political change.

PET offers A-levels in two parts. Upon completing Part 1, you can choose either to take your AS exam (a qualification marking the first year of a full A-level) or continue on to Part 2 to build up to a full A-level.

You will need to apply for each part separately. You can start an A-level at any time of the year, but exams usually take place in June. Before making your application, please speak to PET or your education department to find out if your prison can hold A-level exams as many cannot facilitate this. Alternatively, you might be able to take the exams on Release on Temporary Licence (ROTL) or after your release - we will be happy to advise you further on this.
